DETAILS OF FATAL ACCIDENT TO MR. AND MRS. FAIR.

Machine Was Bunning Over Sixty Miles an Hour When Crash Occurred.

A dispatch from Paris last night gives the following details of the auto accident by which Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Fair lost their

The fatal accident to Mr. and Mrs. Fair occurred at the village of St. Aguilon. Mr. Fair himself was driving his automobile at a high rate of speed when one of the pneumatic tires burst. The machine swerved, collided with a tree with a terrible crash and was overturned. Mr. and Mrs. Fair were killed outright and their chauffeur was badly injured.

The accident occurred at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, and almost in front of the Chateau Buisson du Mai. The wife of the gatekeeper of the chateau was the only witness of the disaster. She says she no-ticed a big red automobile coming along the road at a tremendous pace. Suddenly something happened and the heavy ma-chine slid sideways from the right to the left side of the road for about sixty yards. It then dashed up an embankment, turned a complete somersault and crashed into a big elm tree in front of the gate of the chateau. The automobile was completely wrecked, the front axle was broken and other parts of the machine were smashed, including the steering goar.

When the automobile turned over, the wife of the gatekeeper says she saw Mr. and Mrs. Fair thrown high in the air and fall with a heavy thud to the ground. The chauffeur, who was sitting behind the Fairs, was precipited into the steering of was precipitated into a ditch. He staggered to his feet, calling for help. The gate-keeper's wife rushed to his assistance and aided him in extricating Mr. and Mrs. Fair, who were buried beneath the wrecked ma-chine and in the last throes of death. Both chine and in the last throes of death. Both had sustained ghastly injuries, and were almost unrecognizable. Mr. Fair's head had been crushed in, while his wife's skull was split. The chauffeur was terribly affected at the calamity, and seemed bereft of his senses. He threw himself into a ditch on the opposite side of the road, and rolled about crying, "My poor masters!"

M. Borson, owner of the Chateau Bulsson du Mai, was summoned, and after advising the local authorities of the accident vising the local authorities of the accident he ordered the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Fair to be carried to the gatekeeper's lodge. Here they now lie on matresses, and flowers have been strewn over them. In the room are three wax tapers burning

At the time the accident occurred the automobile, which was capable of running seventy-four miles an hour, was going at the rate of sixty-two miles an hour.

The local police authorities hold in their possession and have sealed up a valise be-longing to the Fairs, which contains jewelry, two letters of credit, a French bank note worth $200, and some gold coins. note worth $200, and some gold coins.

The Fairs have been living lately in Paris at the Hotel Ritz, and kept their apartments there while they were staying at Trouville. This morning Mr. Fair sent a dispatch from Trouville to the management of the Hotel Ritz saying he and his wife would arrive there this evening.

Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, jr., who was Mr. Fair's sister, returned from Trouville. Mrs. William K. "Mr. Fair went to Europe to see what improvements had been made during the last year or two in automobiles," said Mr. Oelrichs. "He had purchased a new one, he said, that could sustain a speed of eighty-five miles an hour for several hours. It was built along radically new lines, and would be one of the first machines of its class to be imported into the United Charles Fair was born in Virginia City, Nev., on April 11, 1867. He brought the first automobile across the continent to this city. He was also greatly interested in photography, and constructed one of the largest company largest cameras ever built in the United States.

Mr. Fair's lawyer, Mr. Haggerty, says

the death of Charles Fair will not upset the present arrangements for the manage-ment of the Fair estate. The property is now managed by Herman Oelrichs. There is much speculation as to what will become of Charles Fair's share of the estate. On ago that there was a lot of empty cigar boxes in the second loft at No. 200 Broad-way. On Wednesday, armed with tape measures and plans, the officers visited the loft, representing to the janitor that they wanted to lease the premises. They measured the loft and apparently were there to see if they could use it. In the rear of the loft were three large packing On one the padlock had not been snapped. In it the officers found about 500 empty boxes which had contained imported cigars, and which had been emptied with care not to destroy the stamps, only making such breaks as were necessary to open the lid. The locks on the other cases were picked and more boxes were found, some of imported goods and others of highpriced domestic goods. In all about 2,000 ingniting conductors, which would prevent imported boxes and 3,000 domestic boxes the flashes so easily drawn from the imwere selzed. Later Mr. Marshall was arrested. He must be an error. When the marks were shown to him he said that it must be the work of some of his employes, as he had never authorized any one to refill boxes in his place. He declared that he would have no difficulty in showing that he was innocent and that he would help the revenue officers to get the real culprit. According to persons well informed about the cigar trade, there are factories in this city and at Key West which make "stuffers," or cheap cigars, to take the place of high-priced and imported cigars. They come in boxes marked with the initials of the cigars for which they are to be sub-stituted. It is said that many of the best clubs and hotels are flooded with these cigars, which can be purchased for $70 a thousand, instead of getting the fine ones they supposed they are buying.

NIXON NOT A CANDIDATE.

Gossip as to Democratic Candidate for Governor of New York. A dispatch to the New York Herald from Saratoga yesterday says: Lewis Nixon, who succeeded Richard arrived here with his family and took a suite of rooms in one of the United States he had the alternative of offending his peo-Hotel cottages.

He had been mentioned frequently as an available head of the democratic ticket this fall, and the suggestion met with great favor among his friends. While sentiment has not yet crystallized for any candidate, many democrats have been of the opinion that Mr. Nixon's chances were equal to those of any of the aspirants for th Mr. Nixon put an end to the talk today by announcing in most emphatic manner that he is not and will not be a candidate. Before Mr. Nixon's withdrawal from the field had become generally known the name of another man had been put prominently forward. Several party leaders here have agreed that Judge Edgar T. Cullen of Brooklyn would make as strong a candidate as could be placed in the field against Comas could be placed in the field against Gov. Odell.

The judge has never been identified with any of the factional differences of his party, they say, and would receive warm support from all sides. His record on the bench is excellent, and his reputation is in every way of the highest. His name evokes enthusiasm among the Brooklyn contingent here, and the other politicians agree that no better man could be selected.

The great question in the minds of many is whether Judge Cullen would be willing to resign from the supreme court bench in order to make the race for governor.

"He can have the nomination if he will take it," said a democratic leader, in tones of conviction.

The only other possible nominee who is receiving serious consideration here is also receiving serious consideration here is also a Brooklynite, former Controller Bird S. Coler, whose strength appears even greater in the upper portion of the state than it is in New York city. Many persons believe he is today the most popular democrat in the state, and that the convention, which meets here next month, will select him for the first place, with a running mate from the western portion of the state.

Mr. Nixon said this evening that any one of ten democrats mentioned for the governorship could, in his judgment, defeat Mr. Odell. He places the men in this order: Bird S. Coler of Kings, John B. Stanchfield of Chemung, Elliott O. Danforth of Che-

THE TELEGRAPH KAISER.

Sarcastic Article in the Vienna Allgemeine Zeitung From the New York Times

LONDON, August 15 .- Apropos of Emperor William's telegram to the prince regent of Bavaria, says the Vienna correspondent of the Times, the Wiener Allgemeine Zeitung publishes an article headed

"The Telegraph Kaiser." The paper says that the emperor's advisers ought to keep him as far as possible from facilities for telegraphing and provide lightning conductors, which would prevent cording to the perial mind by every passing event from resterday one of the revenue officers went into Marshall's place and bought a cigar. A man was just leaving with a bundle. He was stopped and the revenue man asked to see the bundle. It was found to contain about twenty-five boxes of high

Later Mr. Marshall was arrested. He was dumfounded and insisted that there purposes drew sharp censure from Emperor William, who offered to furnish the sum required. In a telegram to Prince Regent Lultpold of Bavaria the emperor said:
"I have just returned home and read with the deepest indignation of the refusal of the Bayarian diet to vote the sum which you ask for art. I hasten to express my displeasure at the mean ingratitude displayed by this action to the house of Wit-telsbach and to your august person, which ever has been a shining model in the sup-port and advancement of art. I therefore beg to be allowed to place at your disposal the sum you require, so that you may be enabled to accomplish your task in the domain of art.' Prince Luitpold replied by telegraph, ex-pressing "heartfelt thanks" for the warm interest shown by the emperor and his magnanimous offer. The prince continued, however, that he was glad to say that through the public-spirited liberality of a member of the Bavarian legislature, who had placed the requisite sum at his dishad placed the requisite sum at his disposal, the government already had been placed in a position to carry out its original designs. It is believed that the Bavarians deeply resent this interference with their personal ber of the legislature" who so provided the Croker in command of Tammany Hall, has money is an invention of the regent to

WILL OF J. W. MACKAY. Entire Estate Left Equally to Widow and Son.

A special dispatch to the Baltimore Sun from New York yesterday says: Much interest was shown in this city today in the provisions of the will of John W. Mackay, which divides the enormous estate between Mrs. Mackay and her son Clarence. The will was filed on Wednesday in Virginia City, Nev.

As to just how much property Mr. Mackay left no one seems to know. Judge Richard Dey, who for years was closely identified with his affairs, is quoted as saying that no one could know the value of the estate until it had been appraised; also that he doubted if Mr. Mackay himself knew within $20,000,000 of how much he was worth. The figures given by Mr. Mackay's old associates in Nevada and California fluctuated between $50,000,000 and $80,000,000. Some have even named $100,000,000. A man experienced in finance said that the Pacific coast estimates of estates were generally from 100 to 400 per cent in excess of the Mr. Mackay held that his estate was the common property of himself and his wife, which gives her one-half. He wills the other half, without reserve, to his son.

BRYAN NOT A CANDIDATE.

Wants Democrats to Nominate Man Loyal to '96 Platform.

A dispatch from Lincoln, Neb., yesterday says: W. J. Bryan has written a letter to the editor of the New Orleans Times-Democrat in answer to the question whether he will be a candidate for President in the next campaign. Mr. Bryan says, in part: I shall not be a candidate for the presidency in the next campaign, and, I may add, I have no choice beyond the desire to
